

ORIGIN	Valle de Malleco Araucanía Province   South Region, Chile
DESIGNATION	2016 Selva Oscura Extra Brut Método Tradicional By LA RONCIERE
VARIETY	60% Pinot Noir, 40% Chardonnay
ALCOHOL	12%
OVERVIEW	Selva Oscura was born to further complement our cold-climate wine program. Only early, thin-skinned varieties such as Chardonnay and Pinot Noir can ripen in the cold, rainy Araucanía Province. Grape maturity often comes with great difficulty, but the resulting wines reach the bottle with intense freshness and vibrant aromas.
VINEYARD	Victoria Vineyard   Est. 2012   D.O. Malleco  Planted in volcanic soils and surrounded by ancient forests, this is a place where vines have developed under adversity and grown to deliver unique wines, with inspiring character and personality.
PROCESS	Produced under the traditional "Champenoise" method from a meticulous selection of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay clusters. Elaboration occurs on-lees over 60 months achieving a superior Extra Brut sparkling wine.

BEST SPARKLING WINE OF THE YEAR | Tim Atkin MW

Juan Aurelio Munoz is one of Chile's leading sparkling wine specialists and it shows in the quality of this barrel-fermented fizz from Malleco. Made from a blend of Pinot Noir and 40% Chardonnay, it's a toasty, tangy, refined style with fine bubbles, racy minerality and a satisfyingly dry finish. 2021-25 Chile 2020 Special Report
