VARIETY

100% Garnacha

VINEYARD

Hand-harvested from a north-facing hillside plot 2,300 feet above sea level. Vines are planted in granitic soils on the foothills of the Sierra de Gredos. The estate vineyards are traditionally farmed with practices following organic rules.

ALCOHOL

15%

PROCESS

Clusters are carefully selected and sorted by hand before fermentation. Only the finest French oak barrels are used for settling and maturation due to desired elegance they impart. Aged for just three months before bottling to preserve the youthfulness of the wine.

TASTING

Wild, red-fruited aromas of raspberry, strawberry and cherry mingle with the subtle sweet, toasted elements from its short time in barrel. The palate is impressively balanced; fruit, tannin, alcohol and acid are noticeably harmonious and supportive. Youthful and thoroughly drinkable.

WINERY

Nestled in a valley between the Sierra de Madrid and the Sierra de Gredos, the town of San Martín de Valdeiglesias is home to Vinedos Tierra Calma. The name, meaning 'calm earth', is befitting as the wines are profoundly influenced by the soils, microclimates, and serenity of the region. With production based solely on the cultivation of Garnacha, the wines provide an unobscured view of the terroir across a single varietal.
